

Marin Housing Authority
Community Working Group
Member Bios

Barbara Clifton Zarate is the Director at the Marin Community Foundation where she works on the strategic area of Ending the Cycle of Poverty. She is a Marin native who has devoted her career to ensuring that the rights and needs of traditionally underrepresented

Caroline Peattie is executive director of Fair Housing of Marin (FHOM). Prior to her appointment Peattie was serving as the housing director of the organization. She has 17 years of experience at FHOM and 26 years in the fair housing field.

Denni Brusseau is the Executive Director and Co-Founder of Bridge the Gap College Prep. Her experience, dedication, energy and bright smile greet students, tutors and family members alike as she welcomes them to Bridge the Gap's family.

Dr. Shirley Thornton is a scholar, author, retired educator and administrator. A graduate of the Command and General Staff College, US Army; she retired as a full Colonel. Elected to the Sausalito Marin City School District in 1998, Dr. Thornton has been a strong voice for improving education and programs for youth “at-risk” of academic failure

Homer Hall is a Marin City Resident and a member of the county Tenant Commission. He is active in the community as a resident council member and boxing trainer.

Katherine Boschetto is a business and homeowner. She possess property management experience and is a leader on the Floating Homes Association.

Kevin Coleman was born and raised in Marin County. He graduated from College of Marin with an Associate’s degree in Physical Education. Kevin is a probation officer with the Marin County Juvenile division; he is assigned to Tamalpias High School as a Truancy Officer.

Ladasha Berry is a Marin City resident. She works as an Intervention Specialist with the Oakland Unified School District (OUSD). She is a skilled facilitator and community organizer.

Lt. Scott Anderson is a Marin County Sheriff’s officer assigned to patrol the Marin City area. He is active in community outreach and engagement.

Liz Darby has been a resident of Marin County for over 18 years, and joined the Marin City Community Development Corporation in 2009. Prior to joining, she worked as an independent consultant to several organizations providing marketing and database services.

Mary Davis is a Golden Gate Village resident who grew up in Marin County. She is a retired nurse who is sensitive to issues of accessibility and equity.

Michael Tabb is a long time resident of Marin City. He has over 20 years of experience as Certified Court appointed anger management and domestic violence facilitator, and is a teacher of parenting classes. Michael founded Facilitating Change in 2013; Facilitating Change is a certified parenting educational agency, providing services in Oakland and Marin County.

Nancy Johnson is a Marin County native that serves on the board of Marin City Community Services District. Nancy worked in social services, and in low income housing for over 20 years in Marin County. Nancy has served on several boards including chair of The Grassroots Leadership Network, The Marin City Health and Wellness center, and the Marin Interfaith Council.

Nicole Dorhan is a resident of Golden Gate Village who attended school in Marin County. She has over seven years of professional experience as a medical assistant Ora Hatheway is a former teacher and Marin Housing Authority resident. She is active in a number of community organizations. She serves on the Resident Advisory Board and the Homestead Terrace Resident Council.

Joshua Barrows is a Marin City resident that has served on the board of the Marin City Community Services District. He currently is a member of the Sausalito School Board.

Rayniesha Breaux is a Golden Gate Village resident and an active parent.